QUINTS UNDER OPTION TO STAR IN FILM DOM

BOSTON, Oct. 30.—The Dionne sisters may go into the movies—that is, when they are old enough. The fact that negotiations are under way to put the famous quintuplets on the screen was disclosed here Tuesday by one of their guardians, Hon. David Croft, Ontario minister of public welfare.

"Yes, we are considering movie contracts," Croft said. "The girls are old enough. They are building up in some sort of fiction when they are old enough. The government isn't exploiting them, but is shielding their interests."

Although the quintuplets at the age of 17 months have piled up a fortune of some $300,000, they will not continue to enrich themselves indefinitely at this rate, Croft said. "They are building up a fortune but there is no use in being money-made," he said.

ONE DEAD IN WINTER BLAST

WINNIPEG, Oct. 30.—Winter's first sustained attack, unusually early and striking with notable force, engulfed Western Canada today, causing at least one death and doing incalculable damage.

The one death occurred in British Columbia but the toll was expected to increase when a complete check is made. Two fishing boats were wrecked off the north end of Galiano Island, in the Gulf of Georgia. A third was reported sunk with no trace of her crew.

ITALIANS FACE FIRST TRIALS

By CHARLES P. GUFFILL
Associated Press Foreign Staff
ROME, Oct. 30.—All was in readiness today for the next big Italian push on the North African front toward Mekele.

An official communique announced communications, supplies and commissary stores have been in complete readiness for the troops may move forward at any time.

Reports of the mauling of Ethiopian forces under Ras Kassa and Ras Seyoum have given rise to the belief the Italians may meet their first real resistance, however, when they leave their present positions.

MAYOR CLARKE SUGGESTS OBNOXIUS GAS BYLAW MAY BE GIVEN CHANGE

Waxing wrathily over Edmonton's ridiculous gasoline by-law, which penalizes vendors for selling the motor fuel after eight o'clock in the evening, three motorists recently called on Mayor Clarke at his home during the evening and aired their views about the ordinance which ties up motor traffic when gas tanks run dry at night.

Mayor Clarke admitted that complaints had been made to him over the telephone at his home. "If any injustice is found to exist the bylaw can be changed at any time by city council," he suggested.

WANT REGULATIONS
The mayor recalled that this question of selling gasoline at night was brought forcibly to the attention of council last summer when more than 100 service station operators and employees appeared for the regulation of hours of business in that trade. At that time the claim was made that other types of businesses were regulated in this way, and the fact that closing hours were not fixed for gasoline vendors worked a hardship on employees who at that time were being forced to work long hours.

Garagemen, however, objected to any restrictions being placed on the sale of gasoline, pointing out that their services remained open all night and motorists could get service at whatever time of the night they might need it. This argument was supported by the Alberta Motor Association and the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce, both organizations taking the stand that if the sale of gasoline and oil were prohibited after 10 p.m., in the summer months and a p.m. in the winter, tourists would be inconvenienced and the city would get a bad name.

CITY WARNED
The city was also warned that the result of such legislation would be the operation of service stations just outside the city limits. These stations would not have to comply with city regulations and would not be subject to taxation.

After considerable deliberation during which the regulations were brought forward, the bylaws committee was satisfied that the new bylaw would satisfy all concerned (excepting the motorists) accordingly, it recommended to city council for adoption and approved it in the summer.

BENITO PUTS FOLK AT EASE

ROME, Oct. 30.—To show his countrymen he was not worried about the outcome of the Ethiopian campaign, Premier Mussolini appeared unexpectedly last night at a theatre where the noted playwright, Luigi Pirandello, was giving the theatrical season.

Upon 11 Duce's entrance, accompanied by an official of the propaganda ministry, the audience rose in cheers. Mussolini stood at his box and gave the Fascist party salute.

During the intermission, he received Pirandello.

HENRY BRACE DISMISSED BY GOVERNMENT

INFORMED OF DISMISSAL BY HONORABLE ERNEST C. MANNING

Henry Brace, superintendent of the provincial government's forest branch, has been dismissed from the service, effective at 10 a.m. today.

The sole reason given for the dismissal was that Brace, on Tuesday afternoon received a letter signed by Hon. Ernest C. Manning, provincial secretary and minister of trade and industry, informing him that he was dismissed from his service.

DEPARTMENT TRANSFERRED
He held a couple of weeks ago, the insurance branch was in the treasury department, but an Order-in-Council was passed transferring it to the provincial secretary's office.

The sole reason given for the dismissal was that Brace, on Tuesday afternoon received a letter signed by Hon. Ernest C. Manning, provincial secretary and minister of trade and industry, informing him that he was dismissed from his service.

Among his activities, in addition to his duties as provincial secretary, was the administration of the Real Estate Act, Electrical Energy Act, Lightning Rods Act and various others.

BRASS BANDS TO PLAY WELCOME FOR JIMMY ON HIS RETURN TO GOTHAM

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Plans for welcoming Jimmy Walker back to New York took definite shape today as a message from the U.S. State Department indicated the ship might dock here by two p.m. Thursday.

More than a dozen bands, some of them with brass, are expected to go down the river to meet the latter, with whistles shrieking a welcome. Organizations expected to participate include the Lambs, Frisco, Grand Street, Bowling Club, some labor organizations and a political delegation from Walker's own district.

THIS MAN'S DUCK DINNER FELL FLAT IN FRONT OF HIM

WINNIPEG, Oct. 30.—Fred Watson went to the corner shop today for some vegetables for dinner.

If he had only waited for approximately two minutes, it would not have been necessary to purchase any. A big live mallard, the wings and body encased with ice, was the sidewalk in front of him, unable to fly any longer.

QUEBEC, Oct. 30.—Quebec's 14th legislature was dissolved today and Nov. 25 was set for the provincial elections. Premier Taschereau made the announcement following a cabinet meeting.

ROME SUFFERS HEAVY LOSSES

ADDIS ABABA, Oct. 30.—Heavy Italian losses caused a dejection of the Ethiopian army, it was said, after an engagement with the Italian forces on the 28th. The Italian forces were defeated and the Ethiopian army was victorious.

DOUGLAS MAY NOT BE HERE UNTIL SPRING

Chief Reconstruction Adviser Has Ample Material for Study

Possibility that Major C. H. Douglas, chief reconstruction adviser to the Ethiopian government, may not come here to work out a scheme for a scheme of Credit applicable to this province until next spring, is contained in a letter from Douglas to the Hon. William Albert.

The letter from Douglas indicates that he has been here for some time, but that he will not be here until next spring.

SHIPPING MEN FEAR TROUBLE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—New trouble between Pacific coast ports today as disputes between Maritime Union and their employers near arrival of a ship from Mexico ports, where a longshoremen's strike is in progress, caused ship operators to express fear of a "black" cargo control, very, such as recently gripped the harbor here, will result.

MASSIEY TO AGAIN TAKE LONDON POST

OTTAWA, Oct. 29.—An indication Hon. Vincent Massey, former Canadian high commissioner to London, would be re-appointed to that post after the late fall, was given last night by Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

An announcement with respect to Mr. Massey and the London office will be made in the near future, Mr. King said, but he will not go to Washington.

THE "PROBLEM" REMAINS

Firms which make returns to the Dominion Government report that during September they took on more hands than during any former September since 1912. It is a fact that the reports, there is no way of knowing whether the total of those employed in Canada is larger now than it was a year ago, or smaller.

The increase for the first nine months of 1930, a gratifying number, but not sufficient to indicate that the unemployment evil is easing itself or in prospect of being solved.

Unemployment figures which bear directly on the problem, seem to show the total of these without work is much the same as last fall.

There is no reason to suppose that the unemployment difficulty has vanished or is vanishing in response to an upswing in world conditions, which has not made itself apparent. Government action, prompt, aggressive, and along several lines, is the only way to make sure that the nation will be a year from now be well on the way to normal conditions of employment and social equilibrium.

MONEY WAGES

Al. Bisset suggests to the Montreal city council that a municipal committee be able to call in bonds at the end of each five year period and refund them, if it can thereby secure a lower rate of interest.

It is an absurd idea, as it is, and it is in line with changes which the last five years have shown to be necessary if there is to be any such thing as justice or security in civic life.

Edmonton and other cities are still paying interest rates which were proper and payable
in the conditions prevailing at the time the bonds were issued, but which now are altogether
unjust and beyond the means of the taxpayers,
and beyond the means of the cities in default.

The thing is as absurd as it is, and it is operating now as it has been doing for years to prevent the cities undertaking new projects which would give them a better future.

The wages of money should vary as the wages of labor, the prices of products, and the prices of business, falling—and also rising—in line with these three factors. It is a matter of justice, and it is a matter of common sense.
Until such time as public opinion shames them
free of the superstitions of "sound" money theory and demands free use of the public credit for public improvements, there is no other way to secure stability in municipal finance and assure municipal solvency.

AT LAST—THAT LEASE

The proof of the pudding is in the eating.
C.N.R. officials have agreed a twelve-year lease, to consider the advantages of the proposed railway grade to the city, and to the municipal rental. That disposal of the fifteen-year argument of the railway lawyers that it couldn't be done. They may spend the next twelve years explaining how they bridged the impassable chasm.

The layman will not need that long to reach a healthy suspicion that the lease that is possible now was possible all along, and could have been completed years ago if the business had been present. Whether the delay was really due to the scruples of the railway lawyers, or to the indifference of provincial and federal governments, is something the layman may never find out; though it has cost him millions of dollars in the arrested development of Jasper Park and the postponed development of tourist traffic from and through this section of the province.

"All's well that ends well," except that it does not compensate for the hundreds of thousands of dollars that have been lost. The road to the Park is now gravelled all the way, and can be widened and improved as we may show the need. That is the all-important point.

Jasper Park will hereafter mean something to car-owners in Edmonton and central and northern Alberta; but it has meant nothing except a remote and doubtfully-stainable goal.
It will mean something also to the motorists of the province, and to the thousands of tourists of the distant west, who have been indirectly from the distribution of tourist money.

WAR IS WAR

Count Ciano explains that only bombs weighing less than ten pounds each have been dropped on Ethiopian towns and villages; for two reasons.

In the first place, we are anxious to do nothing to irritate the peaceful population.
The Ethiopian villagers, we are to take it, do not mind having bombs weighing less than ten pounds each dropped through their roofs and on their streets, perhaps even enjoy the excitement.

"In the second place, our reconnaissance permits us to determine that the Ethiopians troops invariably move in open country and camp outside the villages. They don't take refuge within the walls of towns. Then why are the towns and villages bombed?"

The Ethiopian army commanders apparently hoped that non-combatants would be spared if the troops marched away from the towns. They must be getting disillusioned by this time. They did not understand the ethics of modern civilized war.

Count Ciano thus blows to pieces the last pretense that it is not real war, but only a mild and relatively harmless type, that the forces of Mussolini are carrying on in Abyssinia. When towns and villages are being bombed, even when it is known there are no soldiers in them and there is no military advantage to be gained by the slaughter of non-combatants, no one need be told it is some sort of "soft war" that is being waged against the luckless inhabitants of that country.

Explanation that the bombs are small ones
only shows that financial prudence is playing its part in the operation; it is cheaper to kill women and children with small bombs than big ones. And they are just as dead when the business is over. War cannot be "softened down" of that kind.

Light and power rates are not to be raised as a result of the city ending its agreement with the Calgary Power Co. and resuming the generation of current at the city power plant. In this instance hydro does not seem to have been cheaper than coal as a source of electric energy.

With roads in many parts blocked by an early fall of snow, Alberta just now can realize the reality of "railway facilities." Without these, many communities in the province September since 1912. It is a fact that the reports, there is no way of knowing whether
the total of those employed in Canada is larger now than it was a year ago, or smaller.

The increase for the first nine months of 1930, a gratifying number, but not sufficient to indicate that the unemployment evil is

in line with changes which the last five years
have shown to be necessary if there is to be any such thing as justice or security in civic
life.

Edmonton and other cities are still paying interest rates which were proper and payable
in the conditions prevailing at the time the
bonds were issued, but which now are altogether
unjust and beyond the means of the taxpayers,
and beyond the means of the cities in default.

The thing is as absurd as it is, and it is operating now as it has been doing for years
to prevent the cities undertaking new projects
which would give them a better future.

The wages of money should vary as the
wages of labor, the prices of products, and the prices of business, falling—and also rising—in line with these three factors. It is a matter of justice, and it is a matter of common sense.
Until such time as public opinion shames them
free of the superstitions of "sound" money
theory and demands free use of the public
credit for public improvements, there is no other way to secure stability in municipal
finance and assure municipal solvency.

The proof of the pudding is in the eating.
C.N.R. officials have agreed a twelve-year lease,
to consider the advantages of the proposed
railway grade to the city, and to the municipal rental. That disposal of the fifteen-year
argument of the railway lawyers that it couldn't be done. They may spend the next twelve years explaining how they bridged the impassable chasm.

The layman will not need that long to reach
a healthy suspicion that the lease that is possible now was possible all along, and could have been completed years ago if the business had been present. Whether the delay was really due to the scruples of the railway lawyers, or to the indifference of provincial and federal governments, is something the layman may never find out; though it has cost him millions of dollars
in the arrested development of Jasper Park and
the postponed development of tourist traffic
from and through this section of the province.

"All's well that ends well," except that it does not compensate for the hundreds of thousands of dollars that have been lost. The road to the Park is now gravelled all the way, and can be widened and improved as we may show the need. That is the all-important point.

Jasper Park will hereafter mean something to car-owners in Edmonton and central and
northern Alberta; but it has meant nothing
except a remote and doubtfully-stainable goal.
It will mean something also to the motorists
of the province, and to the thousands of
tourists of the distant west, who have been indirectly from the distribution of tourist money.

Count Ciano explains that only bombs
weighing less than ten pounds each have been dropped on Ethiopian towns and villages; for
two reasons.

In the first place, we are anxious to do nothing to irritate the peaceful population.
The Ethiopian villagers, we are to take it, do not mind having bombs weighing less than ten

pounds each dropped through their roofs and on their streets, perhaps even enjoy the excitement.

"In the second place, our reconnaissance
permits us to determine that the Ethiopians
troops invariably move in open country and camp outside the villages. They don't take refuge within the walls of towns. Then why are the towns and villages bombed?"

The Ethiopian army commanders apparently hoped that non-combatants would be spared if
the troops marched away from the towns. They must be getting disillusioned by this time. They did not understand the ethics of modern
civilized war.

Count Ciano thus blows to pieces the last pretense that it is not real war, but only a mild
and relatively harmless type, that the forces of Mussolini are carrying on in Abyssinia. When towns and villages are being bombed, even
when it is known there are no soldiers in them
and there is no military advantage to be gained
by the slaughter of non-combatants, no one need be told it is some sort of "soft war" that is being waged against the luckless inhabitants of that country.

Explanation that the bombs are small ones
only shows that financial prudence is playing
its part in the operation; it is cheaper to kill
women and children with small bombs than big ones. And they are just as dead when the business is over. War cannot be "softened down" of that kind.

Light and power rates are not to be raised
as a result of the city ending its agreement with the Calgary Power Co. and resuming the generation of current at the city power plant. In this instance hydro does not seem to have been
cheaper than coal as a source of electric energy.

With roads in many parts blocked by an early fall of snow, Alberta just now can

out these, many communities in the province

the total of those employed in Canada
is larger now than it was a year ago, or smaller.

The increase for the first nine months of 1930, a gratifying number, but not sufficient to indicate that the unemployment evil is easing itself or in prospect of being solved.

Unemployment figures which bear directly on the problem, seem to show the total of these without work is much the same as last fall.

There is no reason to suppose that the
unemployment difficulty has vanished
or is vanishing in response to an upswing in
world conditions, which has not made itself
apparent. Government action, prompt, aggressive, and along several lines, is the only way
to make sure that the nation will be a year from
now be well on the way to normal conditions
of employment and social equilibrium.

Al. Bisset suggests to the Montreal city council that a municipal committee be able to call in bonds at the end of each five year period
and refund them, if it can thereby secure a

The Passing Show

By J. S. COUPER

"Murder will out," says Shakespeare, and it usually, but always, does.

A most ghastly murder, that has perplexed the police since it was committed nearly two years ago, has just been explained away by a young woman who took a minor part in the affair. Now that it is all explained it seems simpler if ghastlier than ever.

Six bodies, four of them being those of able-bodied men, were found late in March last year in a pretty beachside bungalow at Ex-land's Point on Puget Sound, near Bremerton. The place looked like a shambling, one of the dead men had been a former pugilist. The wounds on his body suggested that he had put up a fight against several men. All of the bodies were taped and tanned.

Just when it looked as if the Bremerton murder would have to go into the limbo of unsolved murders—like the Smith case in Vancouver, that the authorities are glad to forget—the Bremerton case made an astounding confession to the Seattle police. It fits in with the known facts and clues.

Fear drove her to make a clean breast of it.

Here is what the young woman, Mrs. Larry Poulos, wife of a burglarly suspect, told the police. She had been to the Exland's Point bungalow as a visitor. She envied the free spending of money which her hostess, the widow of a retired druggist, and her husband, were able to enjoy. She spoke longingly of the other woman's better lot to her boy friend, Leo Hall, a shipyard worker and boxer.
Hall said, "Well so and so, get some of that."

A few days later Hall called for her, took her for a walk and insisted that she accompany him to Bremerton to see a friend. He had a gun and a couple of masks, and proposed to stage a "hold-up."

Reaching the cottage late in the evening, the murder pair surprised the hostess as she came out on a couch with a headache, and three of her friends having a game of pinocle. Under threat of the gun, the four bodies were bound with state lace, and to have their mouths gagged with adhesive tape.

One of the women before being gagged, told the two robbers that her husband was to arrive in half an hour or so. She begged that they do nothing to harm him. When the belated husband with a man friend, both under the influence of liquor, arrived they too were bound and gagged.

After their leisure the robber pair went through the house, stealing what they wanted themselves to the money of their six victims. When the woman wanted to leave, her companion told her to wait a minute. She led the hostess into a bedroom and tied her blackjack on her skull as head. He led one of the men into the bedroom, and emerged a minute later with a bloodstained face.

"I'm going to fix it so none of them will be able to give evidence," he told her. When she ran, terror-stricken from the death-coupage, he thrust and fired a shot at her in the darkness, but without hitting her.

Through the night the woman walked back and forth, hiding in the bushes, and came along for fear it contained her killer companion. After the woman left, Hall presumably assassinated the remaining four helpless men and women.

Mrs. Poulos says Hall called on her two days later to tell her he had killed them all, and that he had no more to say. She said she said nothing out of the affair, Hall declaring he got her enough out of the job to pay a doctor to treat him for a malady which was causing him great distress.

It's an indictment of our civilization that men should find it easier to obtain money by theft and murder than by honest work.

There are some things over which Canadians can properly afford to twist the good folk of United States.

United States cannot join the League of Nations that its former president, Woodrow Wilson, has devised, and the two governments to continue the Mountains as the law-enforcement officers in those provinces.

The Imperial Oil Co. is building a large warehouse at Vancouver.

Thursday will be memorable among local Masons, as the day the Edmonton Preceptory initiated into the order of the two governments to continue the Mountains as the law-enforcement officers in those provinces.

Mr. A. R. Rattan and John Coleman returned Saturday from hunting trip northwest of Lake St. Ann. They found very little game and lots of fires.

effort the lower operating cost of the steam plant.

The agreement between the City and the Calgary Power Company family, which was terminated on the 1st day of October, and the steam plant is now operating at less cost than the City's total requirements for electrical energy.

The City's requirements for water from the Pumping and Filtration plant increased to the extent of $2,500,000 gallons as compared with the same months in 1934.

The total cost per million gallons sent out is $1.16, against 1934, $1.04, $1.12, or an increase of $0.02.

The increase amount of charges in the process of treating the river water, to make it suitable for domestic use accounts for the increased costs.

When making a study of the combined financial statements of Parks, Pumping and Filtration, it should be noted that the rate for water to the Electric Light Department was reduced from 1.54 per K.W.H. to 1.46 per K.W.H., and its rate for high pressure water to the Waterworks Department from $0.10 to $0.09 per million gallons.

The total revenue of the Department was $613,726.45, as against $603,272.16, an increase of $10,454.29, this figure decreases in rate for both power and water last year the nine month period shows that the revenue was $593,515.14 less than in 1934.

Expenditures of the Department show an increase of $10,454.29, as against $583,212.16, an increase of $11,242.16. In addition to this figure was $10,000,000 in funds set aside to Reserve, thereby making the net increase in cost $23,717.36, which increase is due to the increased cost of purchased power and increased cost of water treatment as previously mentioned.

The total surplus on the operation of the Department (including both power and water) was $216,735.74 as compared with $242,623.85 last year, a decrease of $25,888.11. Of this surplus, $6,000.00 was set aside to Reserve Funds and $20,888.11 paid into City General Revenue. For the same period in 1934, $24,000.00 was set aside to Reserve and $21,888.11 paid into City General Revenue.

STREET RAINYAS DEPT.

T. Ferris, Acting Superintendant

There has been a very noticeable increase in the Gross Revenue of the Department, the total for the same period being $464,172.85, as compared with $454,724.14 last year, an increase of $9,448.71.

Total maintenance and operating expenditure was $372,966.21, as compared with $358,474.35, an increase of $14,491.86, the total expenditure included Capital Charges and Renewals, $465,255.26, as compared with $455,372.29 for the same period in 1934, an increase of $9,882.97.

Camouflage Steel Cavalry

"Cavalry of Steel" is Italy's name for her motorized artillery, shown below, which can operate in mountainous country. Here a tractor pulling a camouflaged gun is being towed by a German tank.

earned Capital Account amounted to $122,947.78, a very small amount when you consider the value and magnitude of our Plant. The Gross Liability in this connection is $1,003,000.78, but deducted from this the amount invested with the sinking fund board, $331,033.99.

It may be the matter to again lay before you the matter of monthly billing and collections and in this connection we are proud of the results.

Our collections have improved very materially, more especially in connection with the new side paving on 10th Street from the line north of 10th Avenue to 16th Avenue and through the subway. On 9th Avenue from 10th Street to 10th Street, points were raised and new ball bearings and tie rods installed, with the result that the life of the steel will be prolonged and to postpone heavy reconstruction expense on these sections for five to ten years.

In addition a programme of replacement of lumber, ties, and rail fastenings was carried out on the track on the High Level Bridge, and the usual amount of tie and pole renewal. Owing to the wet season more gravel was used as ballast on open track on 10th Avenue, the Calgary line and other sections.

The usual programme of rebuilding and painting of passenger cars and buses was continued, and in addition the three motor sweepers were overhauled and painted. Twenty-three cars were equipped with new steel wheels and the new tyre reinforcement of gear, pinions and other wearable parts was carried out during the period.

The equipment generally is in very good order, and although the track in many places is not in first class condition it is being maintained for safe operation until replacement can be accomplished.

NORTHERN LIFE OFFICIAL HAS CHEERY WORD

G. Fay Davies, Assistant General Manager, On Dominion Tour

Beaming "cheery and friendly," G. Fay Davies, assistant general manager of the Northern Life Assurance Company of Canada, on tour of the Dominion from his London, Ontario, headquarters, came to Edmonton on Wednesday morning with the bright and cheerful message that the nation is headed back to the "two cars in every garage and a bathing in every home" happy hey-days of 1928.

Greyed at the temples but charged with a youthful exuberance of optimism, Mr. Davies paraded figures to show life insurance business this year is on far ahead of 1934 that there just isn't a comparison.

WM. HORROCKS URGED TO RUN FOR ALDERMAN

Well known in business circles in the city and prominent resident of the Newwood district where he has resided for a number of years, William Horrocks, retired, but until recently an executive of the Snowflake Laundry, may be a candidate for aldermanic honors in the coming civic election.

Headquarters of the Newwood district and the north-east portion of the city generally are treating Mr. Horrocks to allow them to put his name in nomination, and he has taken the matter under consideration. An announcement of his decision is expected shortly, and meantime friends of the prospective candidate are rallying considerable support for his candidature.

Mr. Horrocks has been a resident of Edmonton for many years and has taken a keen interest in civic administrative affairs. His business experience is also being cited as one of the reasons why he should allow his name to go on the ballot paper at this time.

Opium Addicts

BANGGON, India, Oct. 26.—Medical authorities here disclose there are more than 1,000 registered opium smokers in the city's Chinatown.

Most are all drawn from the present year. Capital charges remain stationary. Renewal charges are considerably and are likely to remain high for a number of years. However, revenue is also up and altogether we expect to have about $10,000 greater surplus than was estimated at the beginning of the year.

Court Hearing Suit For $4,014

Supreme civil court Wednesday heard the suit of Koni Sandak of Edmonton against his father, Joseph Sandak, Thorvald farmer, for $4,014, being the amount of principal and interest on a loan of $2,000 which the plaintiff claims he made in his father in 1932. The hearing was continuing at the noon adjournment.

Mr. Justice Ford is hearing the case, while Jackson and McDonald are acting for the plaintiff and Manning and Company for the defendant.

Koni Sandak claimed that he took a loan note from his father on the understanding that Joseph would buy a farm for him in the Calgary district. He says that the farm, which was purchased by the father, was turned over to him in settlement of the loan. Should this settlement, he will press a claim for $2,000 as payment for services rendered on his father's farm.

CARCASSES TO BE AUCTIONED AT FALL SHOW

Interest in the Edmonton Fall Show and Bazaar Show and Sale, now in progress at the Edmonton Exhibition grounds, will focus on the final event in this year's show, which will be the sale of the carcasses of animals, on Thursday evening, starting at 6 o'clock, in the Armoury.

The carcasses will be judged Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock, and will be on inspection during the day in the large office adjoining the Exhibition Association's offices in the Armoury. They are exceptionally choice, being the carcasses of animals that have completed in the show classes, and therefore may be as many as 50. There will be 24 live calves and 24 live hogs, and the sale will be by auction.

Last year a number of citizens were annoyed by the carcasses being brought by cattle, restaurants, and butcher shops, department stores, etc. The local packing plants were also large buyers.

C.N.R. Conductor Dies In Manville

DECISION OF HIGH COURT BEING SOUGHT

Govt. Would Have Edict Ready For Parley of Provinces

OTTAWA, Oct. 30.—Social legislation passed at the last session of parliament will be submitted to the Supreme Court of Canada for a decision as to its constitutional validity. Prime Minister Mackenzie King stated last night.

An effort will be made to have the court's decision on these matters ready for presentation to Dominion-Provincial conference which opens tomorrow in Ottawa.

BRUSH ON TRADE

Mr. King also stated last night that cabinet council was busy engaged on the question of resuming negotiations with Great Britain, and the trade dispute between Canada and Japan immediately he took office.

Mr. King said, he visited the United States minister in Canada, Norman Armour, and the Japanese minister, Hon. Shigenobu Kishi, and "respectfully" he said, "we talked over the question of trade relations between their respective and ours."

Gasoline By-Law Repeat Sought

The Alberta Motor Association has decided to take action in regard to the gasoline sales only clause in the by-law.

J. A. McNeil, secretary of the Edmonton branch of the Association, announced Wednesday that a petition would immediately be circulated among the citizens of Edmonton to have the by-law repealed.

"Thammas as the law is unfair, detrimental to Edmonton business and a nuisance to tourists and travellers, who pass through Edmonton, the Motor Association has decided to circulate the petition which will request the city fathers to repeal the by-law. We expect a number of motorists will sign it and we believe that, faced with a petition supported by the public, the city council will have to act as the people desire. The petition will be available for the public in a short time," Mr. McNeil stated.

Mussolini's Crack Fascist Troops Launch Invasion

A reserve army of not less than 2,000,000 trained soldiers stands behind the several hundred thousand Mussolini is using in his invasion of Ethiopia. Months of elaborate preparations have culminated in actual invasion without formal declaration of war. The above shows Italy's might in Africa. Upper left, thousands of Fascist troops as they marched through the streets of Rome before embarking for Africa. Centre, Victor Emmanuel, who has little to say in Italian affairs, but who is said to be opposed to Italy's war plans. Lower right, Italian motor lorries carrying supplies to front over new roads in Eritrea.

City Doctor Ready To Back Garagemen Who Broke Gas Law

GAS RETAILERS SUGGEST SALES IN EMERGENCY

Urge Policemen be Empowered to Issue Permits After Hours

Suggestion that city police officers be empowered to issue certificates of necessity which would enable motorists to get gas after the eight o'clock closing hour was made to commissioners Wednesday by F. C. Jamieson, K.C., secretary for the Gasoline Retailers' Association. When requested the bylaw was first put into effect.

NEVER OBJECTED

The association never at any time objected to cases of necessity being taken care of, and this was pointed out at the time the city was first approached in the matter. said Col. Jamieson. "At that time the suggestion was made that no cases could be taken care of at the city's own gas pump at the Civic garage, and we are now pointing forward the suggestion that a police officer should be empowered to give a certificate of necessity to motorists who are in need of gas."

UNDER ADVISMENT

It was pointed out that the commissioners' office is the last meeting of the present council but at the time held so that little could be done in the meantime regarding the matter. However, the commissioners are taking the suggestion under advisement, and it is problematical as to the powers they have to give the by-law.

Meanwhile the gas has more or less injected itself into the coming election campaign, and the matter will be queried as to their stand on the by-law.

Official tests have shown that red leadwood from British Columbia is found to be better than any other Canadian woods are built of this wood.

Ken Strong Hard To Stop On Gridiron

Although he got into the game for only five minutes, Ken Strong, former professional baseball player and now backstopper of New York Giants pro football team, scored all of his 10 points against Brooklyn Dodgers in a professional football game recently. A bad ankle forced his retirement almost before he got on to the field, but in the short period he was working he ripped the Dodge line for a 25-yard run and a touchdown. In the last period he kicked a 25-yard field goal to win the game and finish the scoring. Giants won 10-7. It's hard enough to stop Strong when he is on the ground, especially early in the game, but when he takes the aerial route, as the Giants are showing him doing, you can figure out for yourself how hard it would be to haul him down.

Japs Will Scare North China With Sham Battles

NANKING IS FORTIFYING ON BIG SCALE

Tokyo Demands Followed By Plans for Nipponese Manoeuvres

TIENTSIN, China, Oct. 29.—Japanese soldiers will begin sham battles along the Peiping-Tientsin railway soon. It was announced Tuesday, as Chinese officials studied Japan's demand for elimination of anti-Japanese elements in north China.

An emergency session of the Peiping military council was called to consider the Japanese demand. Nearly every important north China political leader is present and they were represented as being surprised by the Japanese action.

BLAME BLUEPRINTS

Announcement of the plan for autumn army manoeuvres followed dispatch of a note to North China officials which said Japan felt China had not fully complied with terms of an agreement of last June which followed upon a series of Sino-Japanese incidents. Japan charged blueprints for elimination of anti-Japanese elements in north China.

NANKING PREPARES

An official spokesman at Nanking said only Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, head of the Nationalist government, could decide whether China would resist the Japanese ultimatum.

Nanking, however, was being steadily fortified, with troops marching in and guns being placed on the hills overlooking the city. The process has been going on for some time.

Hard-To-Fit? Not at EATON'S Where Special Sizes Are a Specialty!

We take particular pride in fitting those figures to which ordinary sizes will not do justice! Have you a regular shoulder width but slightly larger bust or hips? . . . Then the quarter size is the choice for you! Or perhaps you're slightly shorter than average with a larger bust and hips. . . in that case what you need is a half-size. Now have we forgotten the over size women? . . . A regular 34 to 36 should prove too small! In brief, then 34 to 36 should fit you correctly. —Ready-to-Wear, Second Floor, Phone 9-1-2-7
